

Caitlin Marino-Lang

Caitlin has 14 years of coaching experience focusing on competitive Free Skating, Moves in the Field and Choreography (through Senior level). Additional specialties include coaching experience on a Synchronized Skating team, and a choreographer of the Pilgrim Skating Club annual Icycles Show. She is currently an instructor of Learn to Skate Plymouth and Pembroke LTS group lessons as well.

Caitlin is the 1993 National Juvenile Ladies Champion, 1993 New England Regional Juvenile Ladies Champion, 1996 New England Novice Ladies Bronze Medalist, and the 1996 Eastern Sectional Novice Ladies Competitor. She is also the 1998 National Collegiate Junior Ladies Bronze Medalist.

Caitlin competed against Olympic Gold Medalist Sarah Hughes and finished above her in the Eastern Sectional Championships. She also trained for many years under the watchful eyes of Olympic and World class coaches Evy and Mary Scotvold, who trained Olympians Paul Wylie and Nancy Kerrigan. In addition, Caitlin was a guest skater in an "Evening with Champions", which included world class skaters such as Paul Wylie, Nancy Kerrigan and Michelle Kwan. She was also a guest skater in "A Galaxy of Stars" a benefit for AIDS.

Caitlin is a USFS Gold Medalist in Moves in the Field and passed her Junior Freestyle. She is also an active member of the United States Figure Skating Association.

Specialties and Disciplines:

Currently teaching freestyle, moves in the field and choreography.

Caitlin has a real love for the sport and dedication to her students and parents. She enjoys coaching all ages and makes sure that her students are always having a good time, while at the same time learning and progressing in the sport.

Contact Information:

781-936-8778 (home)

508-641-3773 (cell)

camsk8gr8@yahoo.com